AIPSO Condemns brutal attacks against Wrestlers

The All India Peace and Solidarity Organisation condemns the police attack on the peaceful demonstration of the wrestlers. It is ironical that while the accused member of parliament is allowed to move scot free while the victims are being punished by the central government and the Delhi police. The police have forcefully removed the tents and are denying the right of protest.

The AIPSO expresses its solidarity with the wrestlers who were detained and will continue to protest against the attitude of the government which is protecting a person who is accused of sexual harassment, shamefully even on a minor.
